Connect with your culture, your community, your campus

Do you identify as Indigenous to Canada?

If you identify as Indigenous to Canada, please self-identify by updating your Student Personal Information on STU-VIEW.

Why should you Identify as Indigenous?

We know that inequities and biases exist and negatively impact people in our communities. When you self-identify, you help us learn more about who is in our community so we can continue to take steps to ensure that George Brown is a safe and caring space for everyone.

What are the benefits?

- Helps develop new services and supports for students.
- Provides access to scholarships and grants.
- Improves current programs and services.
- Ensures GBP understands what barriers and challenges students face.
- Increases representation across the student body.
- Enhances the capacity of teaching staff and student services to create and maintain respectful, safe, and inclusive settings for students.

Your self-identification informs our programs, services, and strategies.

To learn more, scan the QR codes below.

Indigenous Education Strategy

Anti-Racism Strategy & Action Plan

GEORGE BROWN POLYTECHNIC

INDIGENOUS INITIATIVES