

Work-Study Position in Diversity, Equity and Human Rights

Diversity Equity and Human Rights Services is HIRING students for the Upstander Peer Facilitator sexual violence prevention workshop training team. To be considered, you must be a student who is eligible for work-study funding and be available to work up to 24 hours per week in the summer. If interested, please send your resume and cover letter to Heidi.Mehta@georgebrown.ca by April 7, 2017 at 5pm.

In your cover letter, please share your understanding of (1) sexual violence prevention and (2) what it means to work from an anti-oppression perspective.