In this Sport and Event Marketing graduate certificate program in Toronto, students will develop the skills to provide innovative solutions in sports, entertainment and cause-related marketing. Our learning is hands-on and project-based, incorporating case studies and projects that can involve industry partners. In the final semester, student teams organize and execute a charitable event.

This learning experience will enable you to:

- Develop integrated marketing and media plans for arts, entertainment, cause-related marketing and the sports industry
- Plan, execute and evaluate comprehensive events utilizing project management and team building skills
- Develop and evaluate sponsorship activation opportunities from the value perspective of the consumer, property and buyer

Participation in extracurricular activities allows students to build on their knowledge and skills while networking. These activities may include:

- Speed Mentoring
- 5 to Watch³ Canada's Sports Business Awards
- Primetime Case Competition

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

Work Experience (Co-op or Internship) Required

YOUR FIELD STUDY OPTIONS

WORK EXPERIENCE (CO-OP OR INTERNSHIP WORK TERM)

This program requires the successful completion of one semester of work experience to graduate. This work experience is either co-op (paid) or internship (unpaid). Either one will give you the practical experience employers value.

George Brown works with employers and industry partners to identify potential work experience opportunities. Students then apply for these opportunities and go through a competitive interview process. Students are also strongly encouraged to pursue self-directed industry work experience opportunities they believe would provide the learning experiences they value and meet the learning outcomes of the program. This valuable work experience can in turn be added to your resume.

In addition to on-the-job work experience, George Brown College endeavours to provide field education opportunities with real world challenges and clients. Find out more about field education⁴ at the Centre for Business.

THE INDUSTRY

INDUSTRY FEEDBACK

“The insights students gained from the George Brown Sport and Event Marketing program have helped them provide valuable support for our Sponsorship programs. Their experience has allowed them to become important and trusted members of Scotiabank’s Marketing team.”

Matthew Coorsh, Director, Marketing Sponsorships & Brand Management, Scotiabank

"The Sport and Event Marketing program has a great reputation all over Canada. Everyone was either coming from another job, or straight out of university, like me, so they knew exactly what they wanted.

The alumni network is also extremely strong and there is a common bond with other people that have gone through the program." Read more about Sean's experiences in the View from the Top article⁶ in our Alumni Stories⁷.

Sean Reczulski (Graduate 2014, Sport and Event Marketing), former Foundation Manager, Michael "Pinball" Clemons Foundation, now Development and Partnership Manager, Movember Foundation

"I was really looking for a way to pair my degree with a more applied postgraduate experience. I had a strong sports background after being at Queen's, but I was missing the business side. I was lucky to be accepted into the Sport & Event Marketing program. If you want to work in sports, it's definitely the best place in the country to be."

Emma Lambert (Graduate 2017), National Events Coordinator, motionball for Special Olympics

"I started doing research through LinkedIn to see where people in positions that I would ultimately love to have had gone to school. George Brown's Sport & Event Marketing program appeared to be the choice for many, so I applied and was grateful to be accepted into the program. On the very last day of classes I learned I had an offer to join the FUSE Marketing Group as an Account Coordinator. When things like this happen, it validates making the right decision at the right time. From the first day of school to the last day, I poured my heart and soul into my education, so I could come out with a job that I could be proud of. It's been an incredible experience."

Candice Joseph (Graduate 2017), Account Coordinator, FUSE Marketing Group

"While completing my Bachelor of Arts at Western University, I decided to consider a career in event marketing. George Brown offered the perfect one-year program for me. My co-op placement as a sponsorship assistant at the City of Toronto Special Events was the ideal setting to apply the theory I had learned in class. I was given special projects to work on immediately and was able to adapt quickly and contribute to the fast-paced workplace, thanks to George Brown."

Alexis Levenson (Graduate 2008, Sport and Event Marketing), Senior Manager, Operations, MCI Group

"The George Brown Sport and Event Marketing program was exactly what I was looking for. With a passion for sports and an eagerness for the industry, the program gave me the opportunity to connect with great professors, successful alumni and well-known figures in the industry to get me on the right path to start my career in sports marketing.
